Jeptha Creed Distillery Fills 1000th Barrel of Bloody Butcher's Creed Bourbon – Launching Summer 2019

Jeptha Creed Owner and Master Distiller, Joyce Nethery is excited to announce that they recently filled their 1000th 53-gallon barrel of bourbon. The highly anticipated bourbon is set to release this summer and Joyce could not be more excited.

“I am so proud of what we have accomplished and what this 1000th barrel represents. We are a ground to glass distillery and have built this distillery from the ground up. Having 1000 barrels of bourbon aging is a huge milestone for us.”

On Friday, February 15, 2019 at 3pm the Nethery family gathered with a number of supporters as Joyce filled the 1000th barrel. Jeptha Creed is committed to creating every spirit using their Ground to Glass concept. Every ingredient used in their bourbon, vodka, moonshine, whiskey and brandy is grown on the Nethery family farm or sourced from other local farms. Their unique strain of Bloody Butcher Corn offers a delicious sweet, nutty flavor other spirits do not have.

Jeptha Creed has grown tremendously since opening two years ago. From distilling the first legal barrel of bourbon in Shelby County since Prohibition to filling their 1,000th barrel – they can't wait to officially share it with you this summer.
